B. You agree to comply with all laws applicable to your use of the Services and the restrictions set forth in the AUP. To the extent you use the Services to provide hosting services to End Users, you must ensure that your End Users comply with the AUP. You agree to immediately notify Armor of any unauthorized use of your account or any other breach of security as it relates to the Services, and to reasonably cooperate with Armor's investigation of service outages or security issues.

C. You are responsible for understanding the regulatory requirements applicable to your business and for selecting and using the Services in a manner that satisfies those requirements. Additionally, if you will use the Services to transmit, process, or store payment card information ("cardholder data" as defined in the current version of the Payment Card Industry Data Security Standard ("PCI DSS")), or protected health information ("PHI") as defined under the HIPAA/HITECH/Omnibus Rule regulations, you must disclose such intended use to Armor prior to any such transmission and/or storage and execute a Business Associate Agreement (BAA) and/or PCI Addendum to meet our respective obligations under federal regulations.

F. You acknowledge that some components of the Services are not fault-tolerant and are not guaranteed to be error-free or to operate uninterrupted. You shall not use the Services in any application or situation where the Services' failure could lead to death or serious bodily injury of any person, or to severe physical or environmental damage ("High Risk Use"). High Risk Use does not include utilization of the Services for administrative purposes, to store configuration data, engineering and/or configuration tools, or other non-control applications, the failure of which would not result in death, personal injury, or severe physical or environmental damage.

Your obligations under this Section 3 extend to your Users and any entities or persons authorized by you or your affiliates to access your data (including Account Data and Services Data) or any programs or applications stored on or transmitted and/or processed through the Services.

4. Invoicing/Billing.

A. Your initial invoice will include the pro-rated Recurring Fees and Non-Recurring Fees incurred by you between the Services Commencement Date and the initial invoice's date, if applicable, plus the subsequent month's Recurring Fees. Thereafter, Armor will invoice you monthly in advance for the Recurring Fees (and where applicable for Non-Recurring Fees that are fixed and determinable in advance) and in arrears for any other Non-Recurring Fees.

B. The Recurring Fees set forth in the Solutions Order will remain fixed during the Initial Term. Upon commencement of any Renewal Term, the Recurring Fees for the Services will be subject to the fees then in-effect at the date of such renewal.

5. Payments.

A. Payment for Services is due on the invoice date. If payment is not made on the invoice date, you will be required to maintain a balance in your account for the first and last month of Services at the commencement of the Term. Any amount not fully paid within thirty (30) days when due will bear late payment interest at the rate of the lesser of one and one-half percent (1.5%) per month or the highest rate permitted by law from the due date until paid. You will be liable for all costs and expenses incurred by Armor in collecting past due amounts, including reasonable attorneys' fees.

B. You agree to be responsible for and to pay and/or reimburse Armor on request if Armor is required to pay any sales, use, value-added or other tax (excluding any tax that is based on Armor's net income), assessment, duty, tariff, or other fee or charge of any kind or nature that is levied or imposed by any governmental authority for the Services.

C. You agree to notify Armor in writing of any good-faith disputed Fees within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. If you fail to do so, then (absent mathematical error) you waive any right to dispute such amounts in any action by Armor to collect amounts due. Upon timely notification of a dispute, the parties will agree to meet and discuss disputed fees in good faith with the intention of resolving the dispute within ninety (90) days of notice.

6. Suspension of Services. To the extent permissible under applicable laws, Armor reserves the right to suspend your Services to the extent one or more of the conditions set forth below arise:

A. Armor may suspend providing the Services to you, in whole or in part, upon advance written notice if (i) you fail to timely pay the Fees due Armor in accordance with Section 5 (“Payments”) or (ii) you, or any of your Users, are in violation of and fail to resolve such violation of the AUP.

B. Armor may immediately suspend the Services to you without notice if (i) you fail to reasonably cooperate with Armor’s investigation of any suspected breaches of this Agreement or security concerns relating to the Services; (ii) Armor reasonably believes, in its sole discretion, that suspension of the Services is necessary to protect the Armor environment generally; or (iii) Armor is obligated to suspend Services via subpoena, court order or otherwise as required by law, which may require Armor to restrict your access to the data stored on or transmitted and/or processed through the Services.

C. In the event of any suspension of Services pursuant to subsections A(i) or (ii), or B(i), you agree to pay Armor a reconnection fee of $150.00 (USD) as a condition of reactivation of the Services, in addition to full payment of any balance due on the account, including any interest charged for late payment.

D. TO THE EXTENT ARMOR TAKES ANY SUSPENSION ACTION AS AUTHORIZED BY THIS SECTION, IT SHALL NOT BE LIABLE TO YOU OR ANYONE CLAIMING BY OR THROUGH YOU FOR ANY DAMAGES AS A RESULT OF SUCH SUSPENSION. The suspension remedies set forth in this Section will not preclude Armor from pursuing other remedies available by statute or otherwise permitted by law.

7. Term; Termination. This Agreement and your subscription(s) for the Services will be for the Term and shall each automatically renew for successive Renewal Terms for a period equal to the Initial Term at the end of the Initial Term and each Renewal Term; provided, however, that either party may terminate this Agreement or the Services subscription(s) effective at the end of the Initial Term or then-current Renewal Term by providing the other with written notice of non-renewal at least thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the next Renewal Term. You will not be entitled to any credits or refunds for any prepaid Fees. Both parties will communicate any non-renewal notice in the Armor customer portal.

8. Termination for Breach. Without limiting Armor’s rights to suspend Services pursuant to Section 6 (“Suspension of Services”), either party may terminate this Agreement for material breach if upon fifteen (15) days’ written notice the breaching party fails to cure such material breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Armor reserves the right to terminate this Agreement immediately in the event of a breach of the AUP by you or a User that threatens Armor or threatens its systems or environments, as determined in Armor’s sole discretion.

9. Transition Assistance After Termination. To the extent applicable to your Services, should you at or following termination of the Services or this Agreement desire assistance from Armor in migrating your Services Data stored on the servers provided to you by Armor to an alternative service or vendor, Armor agrees to provide reasonable migration assistance subject to you (i) requesting such assistance in writing prior to or immediately following such termination, (ii) entering into a separate Professional Services Agreement; (iii) agreeing to pay Armor's then standard professional Fees; (iv) and reimburse Armor for any actual and reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in providing such migration services.

10. Maintenance. Armor may from time to time conduct routine tests, maintenance, upgrade or repair on any part of its networks, infrastructure, or the Services ("Scheduled Maintenance"), and will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide prior notice (including at least fourteen (14) days' prior notice for any customer-impacting maintenance). Armor will seek to perform scheduled maintenance outside of business hours (defined as Monday to Friday 09:00 to 18:00 of the time zone of the relevant datacenter). You acknowledge that in some instances it may not be practical for Armor to give advance notice of maintenance, for example, in the event of an unforeseen disruption of Services ("Emergency Maintenance"). In these cases, Armor has the right to disrupt Services without prior notice.

11. Confidential Information; Data Protection; Data Security. The parties agree that "Confidential Information" means any information disclosed by the disclosing party to the receiving party, either directly or indirectly, in writing, orally or by inspection of tangible objects (including without limitation documents, trade secrets, prototypes, samples, equipment, customer lists or other customer information not known to the general public), which is designated as "Confidential", "Proprietary" or some similar designation, or is the type of information which should be reasonably be recognized as Confidential or Proprietary. For purposes of clarity, the terms of this Agreement, any Addendum, and any Solutions Order(s) are Confidential Information. Confidential Information shall not, however, include any information which (i) is already publicly known and generally available in the public domain at the time of disclosure by the disclosing party, (ii) becomes publicly known and generally available after disclosure by the disclosing party to the receiving party through no act or omission of the receiving party, (iii) is already in the possession of the receiving party at the time of disclosure by the disclosing party, as evidenced by the receiving party's contemporaneous written records, (iv) is obtained by the receiving party from a third party without a breach of such third party's obligations of confidentiality, or (v) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of or reference to the disclosing party's Confidential Information.

Each party will safeguard and keep confidential all Confidential Information of the other and will return the other's Confidential Information upon request, except to the extent further retention of such Confidential Information is necessary for a party to perform any post-termination obligations or exercise any post-termination rights under this Agreement. Each party agrees to safeguard the other's Confidential Information using measures that are equal to the standard of performance used by the receiving Party to safeguard its own Confidential Information of comparable value, but in no event less than reasonable care. Each party agrees to keep such information secret and confidential indefinitely or until such time the disclosing party makes the Confidential Information publicly known, and not to disclose it to any other person or entity or use it during the term of this Agreement or after its termination except in carrying out its obligations hereunder. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a party or its legal representatives may disclose Confidential Information in response to obligations imposed by law or order of a court or regulatory body; provided, however, that party or its legal representatives must promptly notify the other party (unless prohibited by such law or order) of such request or requirement so that the other party may seek an appropriate protective order or other appropriate relief and/or waive compliance with provisions of this Agreement, and if, in the absence of such relief or waiver hereunder, a party, in the opinion of its counsel, is legally compelled to disclose Confidential Information, then that party may disclose so much of the Confidential Information as is, according to such opinion, required, without liability hereunder.

In relation to all "Personal Data" (as defined in the Data Protection Act 1998, which also defines "Processing" and "Controller") provided or disclosed by you under this Agreement:

- (a) you acknowledge that you are the data Controller of such data and that Armor is only acting on your behalf;

- (c) use reasonable efforts to ensure that no act or omission by it, its employees, contractors or agents results in a breach of the obligations of either party under the Data Protection Act 1998.

In the ordinary course of the use of the Services, you will maintain access to and administrative domain and control of your Services Data, including any cardholder data, PHI, personally identifiable information ("PII") or other Confidential Information that may reside within your Services Data. You acknowledge that as a result of Armor accessing your Services, Armor may also have the ability to view or control your Services Data and in such an event, Armor will maintain your Services Data as Confidential Information and will not make any use of your Services Data other than as requested by you or necessary to perform the Services. Nothing in this Agreement shall impose any duty or obligation on Armor's behalf to supervise or advise you on the manner in which you administer access to and control of your Services Data. Armor does have access to limited PII (typically name, address, telephone number and email addresses for your contact personnel involved in the receipt of the Services) and similar Confidential Information to the extent included within your Account Data, and Armor agrees to protect such information per the provisions in this Section.

You also agree not to remove, modify or obscure any copyright, trademark or other proprietary rights notices that may be displayed or contained within the Services or any components of the Services.

B. Unless otherwise agreed in writing by the parties, if Armor provides you with any software, hardware, or servers to be used for the provisioning of the Services, you do not acquire any ownership interest in any of the servers, software, or other hardware. Similarly, Armor does not acquire any ownership interest in your Services Data.

C. Some hardware and software components of the Services are provided through or licensed from third parties. Your use of all such components is subject to the terms of this Agreement, as well as the terms and conditions of any applicable end user license or any similar agreements. In some cases, Armor, and not those third parties, will provide Support related to the Services, including support related to those third-party components. You consent to such disclosures.

D. The Service may allow you to download, access, and use software applications and software services not included in the Service. Such applications and services may be offered by Armor, its suppliers or other third parties. Armor is not responsible for applications and services not licensed by Armor. If there are provisions in those open source licenses that expressly conflict with this Agreement, then the relevant open source license terms will apply.

E. You acknowledge that if you install and host Customer-owned software licenses (each a "License") on Armor's infrastructure or to be used in conjunction with your use of the Services, you warrant and represent that you have and will continue to have the right, license and power under all relevant Licenses and related agreements to which you are a party or subject to have such Licenses installed and hosted on Armor's infrastructure or the Services for your benefit and that you are and will continue to remain in full compliance with such Licenses' terms and conditions. You further warrant and represent that you have satisfied any and all conditions required for you to exercise such right, license and power. In addition, you agree to indemnify, defend and hold Armor and its Affiliates harmless from (i) any and all third party claims, and any related losses, liabilities, fines or expenses (including reasonably attorneys' fees) incurred by Armor, relating to your compliance with such License agreements or your alleged unauthorized use or installation of such Licenses, and (ii) any other costs or expenses incurred by Armor in connection with or as a result of any software audit performed on Armor on the Licenses by the software vendor or any of its authorized resellers or agents, regardless of your compliance with the Licenses.

F. You acknowledge and agree that any IP addresses that Armor may assign to you in connection with the Services are registered to and owned by Armor and upon any expiration or termination of this Agreement, you agree to release and cease using any such IP addresses.

A. To the extent your Services includes a license to the Armor application program interface (“API”) and any sample code or scripts (“Sample Code”), Armor hereby grants to you and your authorized Users, during the Term, a non-exclusive, non-transferable license (without the right to sublicense) to use the API components to (i) develop and implement applications to assist you and your authorized Users to access and use various Services (the “API Applications”); and (ii) use, copy and modify any Sample Code provided as part of the API for the sole purposes of designing, developing, and testing your API Applications. You may not generally distribute (commercially or otherwise) your API Applications, without expressed written consent from Armor, but you may make copies of and make the API Applications available to your authorized Users for the purpose of accessing and using the Services. You may not use the API for or in conjunction accessing and using any product or service offerings of third parties that are competitive with the Services.

You may not use, copy, modify, display, rent, lease, loan, transfer, distribute, download, merge, make any translation or derivative work or otherwise deal with the API, except as expressly provided in this Agreement. In no event may you cause or permit the disassembly, reverse compilation or other decoding of any portion of the API that is provided in object code only format, or otherwise attempt to obtain, derive or modify the source code or architecture of such portions of the API; provided, however, that the foregoing restriction is not intended to apply to Sample Code specifically provided for the purpose of modification and inclusion in your API Applications. You may not use the API in any manner that would breach this Agreement. Armor may not provide Support for your use of a specific API. Armor may revise or cease to provide the API, Sample Code or its functionality or any part thereof, or support for an API from time to time without notice.

17. Export Laws. The Services may be subject to U.S. export control laws and may be subject to export or import regulations in other countries. You agree to strictly comply with all such laws and regulations and acknowledge that you are responsible for obtaining such licenses to export, re-export, or import as may be required. You will indemnify and hold Armor harmless from any and all claims, losses, liabilities, damages, fines, penalties, costs and expenses (including reasonable attorney’s fees) arising from or relating to any breach by you or your Users of your obligations under this Section 16. Your obligations under this paragraph will survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement.

A. Non-Solicitation. During the Term, and for a period of twelve (12) months thereafter, each party agrees not to solicit for a permanent or other position any employee or subcontractor of the other party to whom that party was introduced or who worked on a project involving the parties without the prior written consent of the non-hiring party. This non-solicitation clause shall not apply to nor prohibit either party from posting job openings on its web site or otherwise advertising job openings through industry or mass-media publications, recruitment web sites, or generally advertised job fairs, or from responding to and hiring individuals who initiate contact with such party concerning job opportunities.

I. Relationship of the Parties. This Agreement does not create an agency, partnership, employment, franchise, or joint venture relationship between the parties or to authorize either party to enter any commitment or agreement binding on the other party.

J. Third Party Rights: No term of this Agreement will be enforceable under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by a person who is not a party to this Agreement.

K. Governing Law; Jurisdiction. This Agreement is governed by the laws of England and Wales and you hereby submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England Wales. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980) shall not apply.

SCHEDULE 2:
ARMOR ANYWHERE CORE SERVICES ADDENDUM

If you have subscribed to the Armor Anywhere CORE Services, then, in addition to the terms and conditions set forth in the Agreement the following terms and conditions shall also apply and are incorporated into the Agreement by reference.

This Addendum for the Armor Anywhere CORE Services (the “Anywhere Services”) outlines your use of the Anywhere Services during the Term as specified in the Solutions Order. All capitalized terms used herein but not defined will have definitions in accordance with the Agreement. BY EXECUTING AND DELIVERING THE SOLUTIONS ORDER, CLICKING THE “I ACCEPT” BUTTON, SIGNING AN AGREEMENT THAT REFERENCES THESE TERMS, OR ACCESSING OR USING ANY OF THE ARMOR ANYWHERE SERVICES, YOU EXPRESSLY AGREE TO BE BOUND BY THE TERMS OF THIS ADDENDUM AS OF THE DATE YOU TAKE SUCH ACTION

1. Definitions. For the purposes of this Addendum, the following definitions apply and are incorporated into the Agreement by reference.

Agent: the Armor Anywhere CORE agent. The Agent is a component of the Anywhere Services that will run on your-designated Hosts. A single instance of an Agent will only run on one (1) Host at a time; an Agent may be installed on both active and inactive Hosts during the Term.

Base Subscription: the minimum number of Hosts permitted to concurrently run Agents as initially determined in the Solutions Order (and as may be increased thereafter by you through a new Solutions Order pursuant to Section 5). The Base Subscription will be used to calculate the Recurring Fees.

Burst: the usage of the Services on Hosts more than the Base Subscription, calculated on a per hour basis based on the number of Hosts that concurrently run an Agent more than the Base Subscription in each month.

Burst Fee: the Fees incurred by you each month for any Burst. The Burst Fee is calculated on a per hour basis based on the relevant tier pricing applicable to the then-current Base Subscription as set forth in the Solutions Order.

Host: either a physical or virtual machine instance that is part of your Infrastructure Platform running an Anywhere Services-supported operating system.

2. Infrastructure Platform Provider Requirement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Agreement, Armor will not provide you with any servers or Infrastructure Platform for the Anywhere Services. You acknowledge that Armor is neither an agent of nor responsible for the actions of the Infrastructure Provider and shall not be liable for the acts or omissions, or any breach of the Infrastructure Agreement, by the Infrastructure Provider or its personnel.

3. Security Services. You acknowledge and agree that during the term of this Addendum, Armor has access to your Infrastructure Platform's operating system solely for the purposes of maintaining the Agent, and for assisting you in the diagnosis of security related incidents and their causes relating to such operating system. Such diagnostic services (the "Security Services") may initially include a limited assessment of your Infrastructure Platform's operating systems. If you request Armor provide Security Services consisting of active incident response of the security issues applicable to the servers operating systems (which typically will include more extensive assessment and scanning, as well as testing, forensics, and active remediation efforts), you and Armor must first enter a separate Professional Services Agreement and Work Order, which shall govern the performance of such Security Services. You are solely responsible for identifying the Hosts that will utilize the Services.

4. Effect of Termination of the Anywhere Services. Upon the effective date of termination of your subscription for the Anywhere Services or of the Agreement, regardless of the cause of such termination, you agree to logically remove and uninstall all Agents from any of your-designated Hosts, including both active and inactive Hosts.

In the event you fail to fulfill the aforementioned obligation, Armor shall have no liability for any damages resulting from any such failure.

5. Payments. In addition to its obligations set forth in Section 5 (“Payments”) of the Agreement, the following payment terms and obligations for the Anywhere Services shall apply:

A. Your Base Subscription is established upon the Services Commencement Date and can be increased at any time during the Initial Term or Renewal Term by executing a new Solutions Order. The Base Subscription will not change in the event you only run a subset of Agents on the permitted number of Hosts included in the Base Subscription. In no event will the Base Subscription decrease during the Initial Term or Renewal Term.

B. Your initial invoice will be dated for the Armor bill cycle immediately following the Services Commencement Date and will include the pro-rated Recurring Fees and Non-Recurring Fees incurred by you between the Services Commencement Date and the initial invoice’s date plus the subsequent month’s Recurring Fees. Thereafter, Armor will invoice you monthly in advance for the Recurring Fees (and where applicable for Non-Recurring Fees that are fixed and determinable in advance) and in arrears for any Non-Recurring Fees.

6. Survival. In addition to the survival provisions set forth in Section 18 of the Agreement, the provisions of Sections 1, 3, 4, and 5 of this schedule will survive any termination or expiration of the Agreement or this Addendum.
